

March 2, 1973

SENATOR CARSTENS: Mr. President, I would ask unanimous consent to hold this for just a few minutes, I'm interested in an opinion that Senator Anderson had asked for yesterday, and we just called his office, he is here and will be here, but I would like to hear what he has to say relative to this 197 before we read it sir.

SPEAKER: Well, there isn't going to be any discussion of it, on final reading Senator Carstens. If you want to hold the bill fine, but if you are going to hold it, there's, it's going to be held, there won't be any discussion. We are about to launch, now before we lose control of the audience here once again I'm going to remind the body that we are about to take up 197 here on final reading and if we can once again get the Senators in their seats and the floor cleared here, why we will proceed with that final reading. Senator Carstens were you advising the Chair that there was some document coming that the body is going to have on their desk to read that relates to the consideration of this bill on final reading?

SENATOR CARSTENS: Yes sir, Mr. President, and members of the legislature. Yesterday Gary Anderson and I, Senator Anderson and I, had visited about this amendment that was put on by Senator Waldron, and we are concerned whether it was really taking out the cooperative of buying of these schools, and we had asked, or Senator Anderson had asked the Attorney General, his opinion, if this really did do it, and I was in hopes that we'd have that opinion back by this morning before we read it, and he hasn't come yet, and this is my concern.

SPEAKER: Well there are objections to holding the bill, rules indicate that we have an agenda to follow, stand by. Well Senator Syas for what purpose do you rise, did you want to, oh very good Sir. Senator Dickinson did you wish to be heard for some reason or other?

SENATOR DICKINSON: Yeah. Yes Mr. Speaker. What are we waiting for, are we going to vote on 197 today, or is there some motion on the floor.

SPEAKER: No, stand by. Keep cool. Now Senator Nore for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR NORE: I would like to say that most of us, or all of us, agreed very carefully section 4 of 197.

SPEAKER: Alright, ready please for the final reading of LB 197. The Clerk will read the bill. The Assistant Clerk will read the bill. The Clerk will read the bill.

CLERK: Title Read LB 197.

SPEAKER: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is shall the bill pass, all those in favor vote aye, those opposed vote no. Voting on the final passage of LB 197. Have you all voted? Senator Carpenter. For what purpose do you rise Senator Carpenter?

SENATOR CARPENTER: A call of the house, how many people are excused?

SPEAKER: Stand by.
